The Media Team

Do you want to learn about the media - that's the internet, TV, radio, and print - and storytelling? Are you interested in understanding how the media can be used to share your Girl Scout pride? Then join the Girl Scouts of Green and White Mountains' Media Team!

Media Team members will have opportunities to do interviews, photo shoots, and speak in front of a camera or microphone—and then you get to see yourself in print, online, or on the air!

Purpose: To establish girls in various grade levels across the council to be the “go-to” for media requests.

Composition: Current Girl Scout members in first through 12th grade

Application: Complete a short questionnaire and media release signature.

Selection: All girls who meet our criteria will be chosen for the Media Team.

Training: Council will train and help girls feel comfortable being interviewed, photographed, and speaking in front of a camera or microphone.

Participation: Council will do its best to include each member in at least one opportunity a year. Not everyone will be selected to participate in every media opportunity.
