white mountains

Make New Friends...But Keep the Old! 1912-2012

Discover (Complete Two)

1. Look through old pictures of your Girl Scout Experience. Write a mini article about what took place and when the photo was taken.
2. Interview friends or family on what their Girl Scout experience was like. How has it changed? How has it stayed the same? What did they do?
3. Make a collage of your Girl Scout experience.

Connect (Complete Two)

1. Find five alumnae (people who are former Girl Scouts, Girl Scout volunteers, or went to Girl Scout camp that are 18 and older) in your community and have them sign up on Girl Scouts of the USA alumnae site which can be found on the Girl Scouts of the Green and White Mountains alumnae page online.
2. Find out how Girl Scouts started in your community.
3. Visit a nursing home or 55 and older community, and reconnect with Girl Scout alumnae. Find out their Girl Scout stories.

Take Action (Complete One)

1. Using your findings from steps Discover and Connect (parts one and two above), host a community night and share what you have found in conjunction with a re-dedication ceremony.
2. Create a then-and-now documentary of Girl Scouting in your community. Share with your historical society, GSGWM, and post to YouTube.
3. Working with Girl Scout members in your community, create a Girl Scout 100th Anniversary memory book, using your findings from Discover and Connect (parts one and two above). Donate to your local historical society.
