

Volunteer-in-Training (VIT) Program

Take the lead and inspire younger Girl Scouts by becoming a Volunteer-in-Training (VIT). For Senior and Ambassador Girl Scouts, the VIT program gives you the opportunity to build upon your leadership skills as you mentor a younger girl troop (Daisy, Brown, Junior, or Cadette troop) outside of the camp experience. See below to start your journey today!

Benefits of the VIT Program

GSGWM's VIT program is an exciting two-part journey where you can sharpen your leadership skills. You will be responsible for planning a thoughtful Journey, implementing your program, and providing guidance to younger girls.

Throughout your VIT experience, you will be guided by a mentor volunteer. Upon completion of the VIT program, you will be eligible for the Volunteer-in-Training award.

How to Earn Your VIT Program Award

Each girl must complete the two-part, Volunteer-in-Training Program following the steps outlined below:

- Complete the Volunteer-in-Training application, the Girl Scout and Parent/Guardian Agreement form, and submit two references.
- Identify a mentor volunteer who is a current adult volunteer of a group of girls at the level you would like to work with.
- This is a two-part program that requires an at home study (Part A) and a practicum (Part B).
  - Part A - Reflect on your leadership style, explore the Girl Scout Leadership Experience, and discover how to lead younger girls through this at-home study course
  - Part B - Design and create a thoughtful Journey that will span four or more sessions over a three- to six-month period.
- Submit Proposal Form and Mentor Volunteer Agreement.
- Upon approval of your proposal, begin tracking your experience using the VIT Reporting Form. Once your project is complete, be sure to submit this form and any additional materials to demonstrate your program experience to earn your VIT Award.
